My Commuter Connect – Order Platform

Plan Options

Under Section 132 of the IRS tax code, an employer can allow employees to set aside a portion of their salary to pay for qualified parking and transit expenses. The employee will not be taxed on these amounts as long as they are used for qualified expenses and do not exceed the statutory monthly limits. As of January 1, 2016 the IRS eliminated the option for cash reimbursement for qualified transit expenses.

AMERICAN BENEFITS GROUP

REIMBURSEMENT ACCOUNTS FUNDING AGREEMENT

New Account Change of Account Effective Date: _____

American Benefits Group does not hold Flexible Spending Account funds for our clients, and no payroll deductions should be sent to American Benefits Group. Our funding mechanism for the reimbursement of your plan participants' claims requires that you, the client, provide American Benefits Group and the debit card company MBI (M&I) Bank, with authorization to draft funds from your designated bank account. It is your responsibility to ensure that said account is funded adequately. By completing the form below you are authorizing American Benefits Group to draft funds from your designated bank account to reimburse your participants' claims. Please check and sign for each reimbursement method that you are authorizing: Debit Cards; Direct Deposit; Check.

IMPORTANT: Note that when the bank account is initially set up there will be a pre-authorization transaction of $1.00; this pre-authorization is a requirement to verify the account information and is non-refundable. Debits will show as M&I Bank, Med-I-Bank or MBI Benefits Inc and the Company ID is 1383261866. If there are ACH failures you will be billed $50 for each failure.
